

Confessing Our Sins ~ The Vidui Prayer

On Yom Kippur, we confess our sins aloud.

This year we are inviting congregants to submit anonymously their own personal sins for which they seek forgiveness.

These sins will be woven into our Yom Kippur afternoon liturgy so that our prayers of repentance reflect what is true in our hearts at this time.

Please turn this card over for instructions.

This Yom Kippur, I will repent for the following sins:

This is an anonymous confession. Please do not provide your name or contact information.

There are two ways to return this card to the clergy before Kol Nidrei (September 17):

Mail to Central Synagogue, Attention: Clergy, 123 East 55th Street, NY, NY 10022

Deposit into box marked “Confessing Our Sins” at any Shabbat or High Holy Day service
