Central Goes to Carnegie Hall: "My Shadow and My Light"

New York Choral Society Concert

Monday, November 12, 8:00 pm, Carnegie Hall

We have been offered a number of discounted tickets to what will be a beautiful concert: the New York Choral Society's opening performance at Carnegie Hall. Titled My Shadow and My Light, the concert looks to composers' responses to profound moments in human history including the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War and the 80th anniversary of Kristallnacht. For tickets and more information please visit www.centralsynagogue.org/Concert.

Mi Shebeirach - Those Who Sow – Psalm 126 (D. Friedman)

Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.

Shehecheyanu (T. Pik) p.344 [648]

America the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,

For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!

America! America! God shed his grace on thee,

And crown thy good with brotherhood,

From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for patriot dream, that sees beyond the years,

Thine alabaster cities gleam undimmed by human tears!

America! America! God shed his grace on thee,

And crown thy good with brotherhood,

From sea to shining sea!

(Saturday Morning) Ozi V'zimrat Yah (S. Gold)
p.343 [647]

Ozi v'zimrat Yah vay'hi li lishuah

Adonai is my strength and might; God will be my salvation.

Layehudim (N. Katz) 336 [640]

LaYehudim haytah orah, haytah orah V'simchah v'sason vicar.

Kein tih'yeh lanu, tih'yeh lanu, tih'yeh lanu.

The Jews have always enjoyed light and gladness, honor and joy. May we be blessed with the same.

Together as One: Interfaith Thanksgiving Service
Sunday, November 18, 6:00 pm, Saint Peter's Church

Join us for an evening of prayer, song, and community as we celebrate our annual Interfaith Thanksgiving service. Faith leaders from Muslim, Jewish, and Christian backgrounds will be present including our own Rabbi Stephanie Kolin.

Lunch and Learn: Irving Berlin, An American Institution
Monday, November 19, 12:30 pm, Lindenbaum Pavilion

Join historian Marty Schneit as he tells the story of how Irving Berlin, a Jewish immigrant from Russia, became the classic rags-to-riches story. Enjoy listening to popular songs like "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "God Bless America," "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody," "Puttin' on the Ritz," and "There is No Business Like Show Business." For more information and to register visit www.centralsynagogue.org/AdultEd.

Lunch & Learn: Chanukah and the Menorah
Monday, December 3, 12:30 pm, Lindenbaum Pavilion

Join historian Steven Fein as he explores the fascinating tale of an iconic seven-branched candelabrum, the menorah, and discover why it is a source of fascination and illumination for Jews, Samaritans, Christians, and even Freemasons. This program is a co-sponsored by Central Synagogue Chai Connections. For more information and to register visit www.centralsynagogue.org/AdultEd.

Train to be an "Accompanier" for Undocumented Immigrants

Monday, December 3, 6:30 pm, Lindenbaum Pavilion

Join Rabbi Stephanie Kolin in a training with the New Sanctuary Coalition that will teach you how to support immigrants in their meetings with Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). By accompanying immigrants in need, you can take meaningful action and make an enormous difference in their lives. The evening will begin with dinner at 6:30 pm, followed by a one-time training session beginning at 7 pm. Visit www.centralsynagogue.org/Accompanier for further information.
