Hanerot Halalu (x2)

Anu Madlikin, anu madlikin
Hanerot halalu anu madlikin

Light (L. Loeb)
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight
Nights celebrate our light
Light
Let the light shine (let the light shine)
In the window (in the window)
When you think it’s almost gone, there is still hope.

When we light the flame and watch it rise,
We’re reminded again
Let the light shine (let the light shine)
In the window (in the window)
When you think it’s almost gone, there is still hope.
There is still hope

Vahasheivota (Shir Yaakov)
V’hasheivota
El levavecha
Ki Adonai
Hu haelahim
V’neemar v’hayah Adonai l’melech al kol Haareetz, bayom hahu, bayom hahu yihyeh Adonai echad.
Ush’mo, ush’mo, ush’mo echad.
The Latke Song (D. Friedman)

I am so mixed up that I cannot tell you,
I'm sitting in this blender turning brown.
I've made friends with the onions and the flour,
and the cook is scouting oil in the town.

I sit here wondering what will come of me,
I can't be eaten looking as I do.
I need someone to take me out and cook me,
Or I'll really end up in a royal stew.

CHORUS:
I am a latke, I am a latke
and I am waiting for Chanukah to come
I am a latke, I am latke
and I am waiting for Chanukah to come

Every holiday has foods so special,
I'd like to have that same attention too,
I do not want to spend life in this blender,
Wondering what I'm supposed to do.

Matza and charoset are for Pesach,
Chopped liver & challah for Shabbat
Blintzes on Shavuot are delicious,
And gefilte fish no holiday's without.

CHORUS

It's important that I have an understanding
Of what it is that I'm supposed to do,
You see, there are many who are homeless,
With no jobs, no clothes & very little food.

It's so important that we all remember,
That while we have most of the things we need,
We must remember those who have so little,
We must help them, we must be the ones to feed...
